

The Money Advice Service

A close-up photograph of a person's hands at a desk. One hand is using a black pen to point at a calculator, while the other hand holds a white card. The background is softly blurred, showing a window with natural light.

What we do?

The Money Advice Service is a free, impartial and confidential service, tailored to meet your needs.

We are fully trained debt and welfare rights advisers who can work with you to help decide upon the best options for solving your benefit, budgeting and debt issues.

We provide comprehensive, tailored support and advice of the best solutions to help with your household debts and with finding ways to manage your household budget better.

We can also check your entitlement to benefits and ensure you're claiming everything you're entitled to.

0131 444 0030

moneyadvice@edinburghfoodproject.org

The Money Advice Service is a holistic service, providing specialist advice and support with:

Personal debt

Applying for benefits

Budgeting

Applying for grants

Energy referrals

Clothing bank referrals

Food bank referrals

We can also help with applying for grants for living costs/furniture and furnishings.

“Hi Frank, I have a passport now and birth certificate. I won my appeal for PIP. I expect a call so I can say thanks so it would be nice to speak to you. But a massive thanks to you and EFP”

Money Advice Service client

“You have made my day today, thanks for being so helpful”

Money Advice Service client

Contact us

For FREE tailored advice, or support...

Call: 0131 444 0030

Email: moneyadvice@edinburghfoodproject.org

Open: Mon-Fri: 9am-4pm

Edinburgh Food Project, 12 New Lairdship Yards, Edinburgh, EH11 3UY

t 0131 444 0030

e moneyadvice@edinburghfoodproject.org

The Money Advice Service is a project of Edinburgh Food Project
Registered Charity SC043220. Authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority FRN 919392
February 2023